Cheering Throng Greeting President Wilson As His Ship Returns Home

President Wilson was enthusiastically received when the transport George Washington brought him back to America for the second time after months spent at the Peace Conference. This photograph shows the cheering flag-waving crowd which greeted him as the transport was coming alongside its Hoboken pier. In the circle the president is seen standing on the bridge of the George Washington just before he went ashore.

SEVERAL DIE IN WESTERN PA. STORMS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 11.—

Five persons were dead today, a dozen others missing and more than two score injured as the result of a severe electrical storm, accompanied by high wind and a cloud burst which swept this section of the state late yesterday. The most serious damage was done at Bradford, where a tornado killed two persons, injured a score of others and demolished 75 houses. Lightning killed two campers near Clinton and a farmer at Greensburg. Property damage will run into many thousands of dollars.

Wire service today was badly crippled by the storm and communication with other towns where victims of the storm were reported was impossible this afternoon. At Bradford rescue parties were searching the ruins of demolished houses for additional bodies. Nine persons had not been accounted for this morning and were believed to be buried under the wreckage of their homes. A number of injured were in hospitals. Reports from outlying districts this morning showed the storm's damage to be heavy. Besides demolishing the southern part of Bradford, farm buildings and oil derricks for miles around were wrecked. At Bradford one house was carried a quarter of a mile by the tornado.

JOHN D. EXTRAVAGANT

GREENFIELD, Mass., July 11.—John D. Rockefeller grew reckless with his nickels when he took a whole handful of them and distributed them to the boys of the town as he was leaving his hotel on his way to Seal Harbor, Me., where he will spend the summer. Only one nickel was given to each person by the oil king accompanied by his good wishes.

SENATE WILL TAKE UP TREATY OF PEACE MONDAY; PRESIDENT IS READY TO MEET COMMITTEE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, July 11.—

With the senate in possession of the peace treaty and its league of nations covenant, but with sessions adjourned until Monday, advocates and opponents of the league today began preparations for the ratification contest which is expected to engage the attention of the senate for weeks.

Both sides were expected to hold informal preliminary conference today preparatory to the initial meeting Monday of the foreign relations committee to which the treaty was sent yesterday after it had been laid before the senate by President Wilson. The committee is expected at its meeting Monday to agree on the basis for its study of the document and accordingly its session is awaited with unusual interest.

In presenting the treaty yesterday the president declared his services and all his information would be at the disposal of the committee and of the senate. Accordingly it was considered probable that several members of the foreign relations committee would ask for conference with the president within the next few days or that the president would invite several of the committee members to the White House.

President Wilson's address to the senate transmitting the peace treaty today was praised by Democratic leaders as one of his best state papers, but Republican Senators generally were inclined to criticize it.

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, Republican leader, made no comment and Senator Knox, Republican, Pennsylvania, declined to comment.

Senator Borah, Idaho, Republican, one of the leading opponents of the League of Nations, also declined to comment, except to say that President Wilson "completely answered" his own argument that the League of Nations is a league for peace by his statement that it is "formed as an alliance of war."

Senator Smoot, Utah, Republican, characterized the address as "another Wilsonian essay, but not quite up to the standard."

Senator Harding, Ohio, Republican, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said the address was "the appeal of the internationalist and lacking utterly in ringing Americanism."

Senator McCumber, North Dakota, Republican, a supporter of the League of Nations, said the address was "very impressive."

"The address," said Senator Swanson, Virginia, Democrat, "is magnificent, able, eloquent and inspiring. The reasons presented for the ratification of the treaty, including the League of Nations, were strong, cogent and unanswerable."

"I think," said Senator Williams, Mississippi, Democrat, "that in breadth of vision, in height of humanitarianism, in fundamental world statesmanship, and in delicacy of dove-tailed English, it is the greatest thing he has uttered. His words are a fitting close to his magnificent and unselfish and, upon the whole, effective work at Paris."

"I thought," said Senator Chamberlain, Oregon, Democrat, "it was a splendid address, covering the subject concisely, and in a way that will make its way to the hearts of the American people."

Senator Robinson, Arkansas, Democrat, asserted the address was "a clear and forceful argument for the ratification of the treaty."

Not a Case of Death Penalty In Navy Report

WASHINGTON, July 11.—

A clemency board consisting of Secretary Daniels, Rear Admiral George R. Clark, judge advocate general, and Commander Frank B. Freyer, assistant judge advocate general, now is engaged in reviewing court martial sentences imposed during the war.

Secretary Daniels announced that not a man was executed as the result of naval courts martial during the war. In several cases, he said, courts martial recommended the death penalty, but in each case the reviewing board commuted the sentence to imprisonment.

FORD CONCERN IS BEING REORGANIZED

DETROIT, Mich., June 11.—

Reorganization of the Ford Motor company is being completed, whereby Edsel B. Ford, 25 year old president of the company, becomes with the exception of one other stockholder, the sole partner with his father, Henry Ford in the corporation. This announcement was made here today by Frank L. Klingensmith, vice president and general manager of the company.

Mr. Klingensmith announced that purchase had been arranged of all the minority stock excepting a block held by James Couzens, millionaire mayor of Detroit and former Vice President of the company.

Recapitalization of the company also is contemplated, Mr. Klingensmith said, but added that announcement of the details at this time would be premature. Mr. Klingensmith and other officials of the company refused to divulge the amount involved in the purchase. It was estimated in financial circles however that it would total close to $100,000,000.

PACKERS WILL DOMINATE ALL OF FOOD PRODUCTS UNLESS ACTION IS TAKEN SAYS FEDERAL TRADE BODY

R-34 MORE THAN HALFWAY ACROSS ON RETURN TRIP

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)

NEW YORK, July 11.—

The R-34 was estimated to be more than half way across the Atlantic at 9 a. m. today, although official advices regarding the dirigible's position were lacking. At 4-00 a. m. (Greenwich mean time), (mid New York), when the last message was received, the R-34 was 1,260 miles east of here and speeding at 45 knots. If this progress were maintained, it was calculated the airship at 9-00 a. m. would be approximately 1,665 miles east of New York.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 11.—

The naval wireless station here reported speaking to the R-34 at 5:08 a. m. today. It failed to get her exact position but indications were that the dirigible was near the Azores.

OIL MEN INDICTED FOR USING MAILS IN FRAUD SCHEME

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 11.—

Thirteen oil men, accused of having conspired to defraud and with having used the mails to defraud, all of whom are connected with the High Gravity Oil company, the Oil Fields Development Company and the Mammoth Oil Company, are under arrest on Federal warrants, and will be tried in the Federal Circuit Court.

The defendants, who were indicted by a special grand jury investigating oil companies are:

William S. Sheridan, St. Chicago; John C. Long, Redmon F. Sheridan, Benjamin V. Hole, Samuel A. Hole, Charles D. Pratt, William M. Sheridan, Jr., J. E. Bogart, William P. Williams, Edward W. Davidson, Arthur C. Davidson, W. H. Cunningham, and C. W. Witt.

The first five named are under $5,000 bond each, and the others under $2,500 bond each.

According to the indictment more than 10,000 persons invested money in the "enterprise," when they were told in pamphlets and letters that the companies owned wells in Kentucky which sold for $2.60 and $2 respectively.

Five Great Concerns Are Arraigned in Official Report For "Undisguised Control" of Markets

NOT CONFINED TO MEATS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)

WASHINGTON, July 11.—

An approaching packer domination of all important foods in the United States and international control of meat products with foreign companies seems a certainty unless fundamental action is taken to prevent it, the federal trade commission declared today in part of one of its reports to President Wilson on the "extent and growth of power of the five packers in meat and other industries."

"A fair consideration of the course the five packers have followed and the position they have already reached," said the report, "must lead to the conclusion that they threaten the freedom of the market of the country's food industries and of the by-product industries linked therewith."

The meat packer control of other foods will not require long in developing. Declaring "the history of the packers' growth is interwoven with illegal commissions, and radiates with undisclosed control of corporations," the report urged the independence of full publicity of corporate ownership for all industries.

"As to devices for securing control, there does not exist adequate law," the report said. "In its absence unfair competition may run its course to the goal of monopoly and accomplish the ruin of competitors without the secret ownership being suspected and consequently without complaint to the commission or investigation of facts. The competitor is in jeopardy so long as he has not the knowledge of true ownership and the public is entitled to such knowledge."

Alleging that the "big five" packers—Swift & Company, Armour & Company, Wilson & Company, Morris & Company and the Cudahy Company—jointly or separately wield controlling interest in 374 companies, including interest in 95 others and undetermined interest in 93—a total of 762 companies—and that they produce or deal in some 775 commodities, largely food products, the report gives this picture of growing packer invasion into related and unrelated industries:

"In addition to meat foods, they produce or deal in such diverse commodities as fresh tomatoes and banana strings, leather and cottonseed oil, breakfast foods, vinifera, curled hair, pepsin and washing powders. Their branch houses are not only stations for the distribution of meat and poultry, but take on character of wholesale grocery stores, dealers in various kinds of produce and jobbers to special lines of trade."

"They have interests large enough to be a dominating influence in most of the services connected with the production and distribution of animal foods and their by-products, and are reaching out for control, not only of substitutes of animal food, but of substitutes for other lines into which the integration of their business has led them. They are factors in cattle loan companies making the necessary loans to growers and feeders of livestock; are interested in railways and private car lines transporting livestock and manufactured animal products; in most of the important stockyards companies—the public market for the bulk of food animals; and in livestock, trade papers on which growers and feeders rely for market news."

"They are interested in banks from which their competitor packing houses borrow money; in companies supplying machinery, ice, salt, materials, boxes, etc.; to themselves and their competitors; they are principal dealers on the provision exchange where future prices in standard cured animal products are determined; they or their subsidiary companies deal in hides, also, fertilizer, material and other crude animal by-products, and themselves carry the manufacture thereof to a future stage than most of their competitors."

"They are important factors in the leather industry, in oleomargarine and lard substitutes, in cottonseed oil, in fertilizer, in soap, in glues, etc."

"Individuals of the Armour family are owners of grain and elevator companies and J. Ogden Armour is a prominent factor in the American International corporation, with its shipping and shipbuilding interests. Its import and export companies in various lines, its interest in a company organized to develop cattle raising, meat packing, quabache extract and allied business in Paraguay, its control of a large tea importing company and a sugar machinery corporation, and its minority stock in the United Fruit company."

"Some of Swift & Company's subsidiaries are growing tropical fruits in Hawaii; a subsidiary of Wilson & Company Inc., has reached into the salmon fisheries of Alaska, and a Morris concern cans shrimp taken in the waters of the Gulf of Mexico."

"In England, France, Italy, Holland and other European countries large meat distributing companies have been organized by the packers to sell the meats from their plants in the United States, Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay, Brazil and Australia."

CHICAGO, July 11.—Charges against the big meat packers contained in the report issued by the federal trade commission today were denied by Louis F. Swift, president of Swift & Company, speaking for his own company and for the other big Chicago packers, Armour & Company, Wilson & Company and Cudahy & Company.

This latest report of the federal trade commission is merely an attack upon large and successful business organizations and should be resented by all Americans who are proud of the industrial progress of the nation, said Mr. Swift. "It contains nothing new and is an outgrowth of the former discredited Heney expose investigation. This report, so far as I am informed, contains absolutely no evidence of collusion among the five largest packers."

The manner in which the trade commission juggles figures and reports to sensationalism betrays the insincerity of the commission. We are living up to both the spirit and the letter of the law and want to cooperate with the government in every helpful and constructive way, but we must protest against the methods used by this important branch of the government."

"I say that the large packers and their individual businesses are a public benefit and a decided factor in keeping down the spread between livestock and meat prices. This report is put out now as a part of the

COAST STEAMERS HELD BY STRIKE

NEW YORK, July 11.—

Several coastwise steamers have been prevented from sailing and others due to leave tomorrow will be tied up unless they are able to replace striking firemen, water tenders and others, who struck yesterday for a wage increase of $15 a month. Officials of the International Seamen's Union, with which the strikers' organizations are affiliated, estimated that three thousand men are directly affected, and that they would be joined by the seamen, cooks, stewards, engineers and mates. Should the claims of the union men be made good about forty thousand men will walk out paralyzing coastwise shipping.

Vessels operated by the United States shipping board are not affected.

EDGEWATER, N. J., July 11.—

One fireman was injured, a barge and a pier 280 feet long were destroyed and the main plant of the Corn Products company was endangered by fire of undetermined origin here today.

A large quantity of gluten and corn stored on the pier, on which the fire started, was destroyed. The plant is one of several of the Corn Products company at which employees are on strike.

Propaganda in which the trade commission, with others, is engaged, seeking to subject the packing industry and other lines of business to the arbitrary control of subordinate government officials through a license system. No one disputes that out of the total receipts of the packers, derived from the products of animals, about 85 per cent is paid out for live animals themselves. About 13 per cent is paid out for wages, transportation and other such expenses. About two per cent of this turnover is earned by the packer as net profit. And no one disputes that this small amount is but a small fraction of a cent per pound and that it is so negligible as not in any way to affect the price which the consumer pays for meats.

ROAD BIDS RECEIVED
County commissioners this afternoon will receive bids for improvements on various roads in Allen county. The bids will be for material and labor. At this time will also be received bids for the improvement of the Spencerville road. The cost of the improvements are estimated at between $12,000 and $15,000, commissioners say.

COUNCIL AWARDS MONEY FOR WATER WORKS OPERATION

Council, at its extra session last evening passed the water works appropriation ordinance allowing Service Director Matheany $91,287.00 on which to run the works for the last half of 1919. However, officials today say they can't understand the extra funds are coming from in case the water works does not earn the appropriation.

The first six months' earnings of the plant totaled approximately $77,000. If it earns no more the last half it will leave a deficit of about $15,000. City officials are at a loss to understand where this amount will come from.

One of the newest additions to be opened up in Lima, and the first to be started in the southeast section of the city in the past seven years is the Lima Drilling company's addition, which will hold an opening on Saturday and Sunday, July 12 and 13. This addition consists of 55 acres, which are sufficiently close to the manufacturing end of the city, and yet away from the smoke and grime.

The addition has been cut into lots which will sell at very moderate prices. The addition is bounded on the west by Sugar street, on the east by Mandeville avenue, and on the south by Dingledine avenue. To get there by trolley, those interested can take the Pine street line, get off at East Kibby and walk to office, or take the Bellefontaine avenue line to East Kibby, and walk west two blocks.

TRAFFIC IS DELAYED BY A R. R. ACCIDENT

ST. MARYS, July 11.—An incident caused nearly a half hour's delay in the arrival of the Western Ohio mail car due here at 7:35 o'clock. Sudden application of the airbrakes Wednesday afternoon, on an eastbound L. E. and W. freight train, buckled two cars and forced one set of trucks out of position. For more than twenty minutes every crossing was shut from the canal eastward to the Spring street crossing. Pedestrians, road vehicles and interurban cars were involved. L. E. and W. passenger train No. 2, due at 2:36 was held back for 20 minutes.

No one so far has offered a positive reason why the fish at Lake St. Marys continue on strike. Practically nothing doing in the way of fishing anywhere on the big lake. Three Lima men, Gus Garland, his father-in-law and an employee came yesterday evening and fished all night without any luck. They had made the circuit on the pond and report the same condition all around. The trio traveled in an automobile.

That Co. K, of St. Marys has been officially recognized by the War Department as a military unit, is the information conveyed in a message from Adjutant General Roy E. Layton to Capt. Emil F. Marx. The recognition by the War Department is the finale of all action in connection with the organization of the military unit and Co. K is now a full fledged portion of the United States National Guards.

Four hundred and seventy bushels of wheat were threshed, Wednesday, from a 26 acre field at the E. L. Ramsey farm just west of the Dohse school house in St. Marys township, formerly the Fred Stroeter farm. This makes an average of a little better than 18 bushels to the acre.

M. E. CENTENARY AVERAGES 50,000 DAILY ATTENDANCE

COLUMBUS, O., July 11.—With the average attendance at the exposition placed at 50,000 each day, it was estimated by centenary officials today that the total attendance will be 1,000,000 at the close Sunday.

No returns on the financial standing of the centenary has yet been made by the treasury department. It was announced today. They are expected to make some statement late today however.

All records for attendances are expected to be broken at the exposition the last few days. It is estimated that at least 5,000 people were unable to get tickets for the great centenary pageant, "The Wayfarer," yesterday, so great are the crowds seeking to attend.

Records show that 1900 visitors at the Methodist centenary have signed tithing intercessory prayer cards. One, third of the signers pledged to devote one-tenth of their income to the work of the church at home and in foreign lands.

NOTHING NEW IN STRIKE OF LINEMEN ON OHIO ELECTRIC

The strike of the linemen of the Ohio Electric company, remains practically the same. In the past 48 hours there have been no new developments in the situation. J. T. Williams, conciliator, Department of Labor left Lima last evening for Washington, D. C., after unsuccessfully endeavoring to bring about a reconciliation between the striking workmen and the company.

Raymond Cleary, Chicago, representative of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who is in Lima in behalf of the linemen, this afternoon claimed that officials of the electric company have pointed blank refused to meet him or any of the strikers.

This, however, is denied by officials of the company, who state, they have always been, and are now, ready to meet any committee of the workmen and confer with them in an effort to effect a conclusion satisfactory to both the company and the strikers.

WAPAKONETA

WAPAK IS NEEDING MORE RESIDENCES

WAPAKONETA, July 11.—While engaged in building a granary at the Clem Brown farm north east of Wapakoneta, Eldon Wellington had two fingers of his left hand smashed. He was assisting a fellow worker to lift some heavy two-by-ten planks, which were being placed to serve as rafters when the other man left the end of one drop that he was carrying. The sudden jolt caused Wellington to drop the plank also, and in doing so his left hand got under the heavy beam.

This county stands 28th among the counties of Ohio in the amount of War Savings Stamps sold by school children so far this year. Total sales of $4,000,000 have been made in the state this year through the schools of which amount $30,500.91 was sold in this county. The per capita averages of sales by the school children of this county is $5.58.

Altho neighboring cities and towns and farming territory around Wapakoneta has recovered from the stagnation of the war and are beginning an extensive building program, the "building bee" has not yet struck Wapakoneta. Indeed so little construction work is being done here that carpenters and contractors are seeking richer fields in other communities.

There are but two new dwellings under construction in Wapakoneta: a two story frame house on West Anglin street being put up by County Surveyor J. E. House and the other a two story frame house being built for Rufus Wagner on Main street. The House residence is rapidly nearing completion.

To the Dyspeptic
Would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles are over, that you can eat any kind of food that you crave? Consider then the fact that Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others—why not you. There are many who have been restored to health by taking these tablets and can now eat any kind of food that they crave.

Last Rites For Mrs. Sue Roser Saturday Morn

Requiem high mass for Mrs. Sue R. Roser, well-known Lima resident who died Thursday morning at St.

Rita's hospital, following a lingering illness, will be celebrated Saturday morning at 8:30 o'clock at St. Rose Catholic church. Burial will be made in Gethsemani cemetery. The deceased was without any living relatives that are known, and has been a resident of Lima for the last quarter of a century.

For many years Mrs. Roser made her home with the F. X. Gallarneau family on West Wayne street, until after the death of both Mr. and Mrs. Gallarneau several years ago. Since that time she had been living with Mrs. Amelia Davis, North West street. The body was taken to the O'Connell mortuary on West McKibben street, where friends may go to pay their last respects.

WELL-KNOWN VISITORS.

Chester A. McCormick and Lawrence H. Abraham, of North Judson, Ind., left the city for Dayton, Wednesday evening, after spending several days here with the former's sister, Mrs. J. W. Leasure, and family, on South Elizabeth street, and other relatives in the city.

Mr. McCormick is editor and publisher of the North Judson News, and former president of the Lima Editorial association. The young men had been attending the mid-summer meeting of the Indiana Democratic Editorial association at Ft. Wayne, their distinguished guest of honor being Secretary of Navy Josephus Daniels.

Mr. McCormick and Mr. Abraham drove on through to Lima from Ft. Wayne, and the boys are visiting at a number of towns on their route. Mr. McCormick is quite prominently identified with Hoosier politics, having served four years as a member of the Indiana state senate having the distinction of being the youngest member to occupy a seat in that body. He was instrumental in enacting many reform laws in his state, including the public utility voters' primary and reorganization laws and anti-saloon laws, being the author of the latter named measure.

Both Mr. Abraham and Mr. McCormick were only recently discharged from the army, the former having spent a year overseas, when he participated in five big battles of the world war. The latter was in the U. S. tank corps commonly known as the "Treat 'Em Rough" boys, and was stationed most of the time at Camp Polk, Raleigh, N. C. The boys will return to Lima Saturday, stopping here on their way back to Indiana.

LUNCHEON

Mrs. Frank T. Campbell, a visitor from Des Moines, Ia., was paid a pretty compliment by Mrs. Henry Deisel, St. of South Cole street, who entertained with one o'clock luncheon at the Country club Thursday. The one long table was placed on the porch, and was resplendent with spring blossoms, the pink predominating with place cards and favors in pink.

Those grouped around the festal board were the honor guest, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. A. L. White, Mrs. E. B. Mitchell, Mrs. Henry Deisel, Jr., Mrs. Clinton Seale, Mrs. Alfred Wemmer, Mrs. W. L. Graham, Mrs. George T. Glover, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. E. A. Williams and mother and sister, Mrs. George MacMullen and Mrs. Georgina MacMullen of New York City, Mrs. A. S. Crops and Mrs. W. E. Bell.

DINING CLUB

The final meeting of the Ideal club will long be remembered in the heart of those present as it was one of those informal affairs that are so enjoyable. It was held at the home of Mrs. Louise Long, Mr. Maxine Arbough being hostess, an other reason for its being a enjoyable. Mr. Arbough is a charming hostess.

The time given over entirely to pleasure, after the election of officers which will hold with the following results: Mrs. Will K. Kell, president; Mrs. Louise Long, vice president; Mrs. Anna L. Kell, secretary; and Mrs. George Connor, treasurer. The hostess of the evening will be on September 11th at the home of Mr. Will K. Kell.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Alf of Cincinnati, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. of North Main street for several months have returned.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wemmer, West Market street, have in the house guests, Mr. and Mrs. John Kerkle, of Cincinnati, Mrs. Viola Eugene, of Cincinnati, Miss Helen Kessing, of Cincinnati, and Mr. Edgar Meeks, of Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Mrs. Henry Wemmer, dancing party, Shawnee Country club, 8:30.

LUNCHEON BRIDGE.

Fragrant with tea roses and sweet peas, the heat of the day shut out, Mrs. Egbert N. Zellitz' home on Shawnee was most inviting, when she had a small circle of friends in to luncheon.

Those present were Mrs. Harry Wright and house guests, Miss Dorothy and Miss Josephine West, Mrs. F. E. Hannan, Mrs. George Bayly, Mrs. E. R. Leete, Mrs. J. B. Vail, Mrs. Harry Moulton, Mrs. Henry Deisel, Mrs. Henry Wemmer, and Mrs. Hayes, of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram A. Quackenbush of Cincinnati, motored to Lima Thursday, where they are the guests of friends for several days.

QUIET WEDDING.

A marriage involving two popular members of society of the South Side was celebrated at Celina at the home of a cousin, Benjamin Welckeljohn, of that city, when Miss Helen Geach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Geach of South Pine street, became the bride of Earl Grant, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Grant, of Ontario street. The couple left the city Thursday noon bound for Celina and at 7:00 o'clock the ceremony was performed.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant returned to Lima Friday morning, and left then for a lake trip of several weeks.

Thomas will arrive here Saturday to visit with Mrs. Gayer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marsh Thompson of West Market street. They will be accompanied by Miss Margaret Traub, a frequent Lima visitor in the past. Miss Traub's father, General Peter M. Thomas post.

Lieutenant Chester Cable has arrived in this country at Newport News and is at present enroute to Camp Sherman. His wife will join him there. And it is probable that they will return to Lima the first of the week.

Word has been received in Lima that Lieutenant Thomas Greenland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Greenland of South Jameson avenue, has arrived in port in this country, having made a round trip to France since spending his leave with his parents recently. Lieutenant Greenland is now officer in the U. S. Navy having entered the service shortly after we entered the war, later working himself up to a commissioned rank and then earning promotion to his present place. He is on transport service and has completed fourteen round trips between the United States and the old country.

Miss Mahaffey's table decorations were of the daintiest. A mammoth basket of garden flowers centered the one long table. The place cards and nut baskets, in yellow and white were cleverly designed bits of artistry.

Miss Mahaffey's guests included, Miss Dorothy and Josephine West, Miss Doris Young, Miss Anette Roby, Miss Eloise Cunningham, Miss Margaret Warfield, Miss Abigail Sullivan, Miss Catherine Gramm, Miss Josephine Rogers, Miss Bertha Bascombe, Miss Jeanette Stolzenbach, Miss Mary Parmenter, Miss Hilda Leete, Miss Janet White, Miss Magdalene Stolzenbach, Miss Margaret Graham, Miss Gertrude Boose, Miss Leona Bernstein and her house guest, Miss Madeline Cusher, of Cincinnati.

PUTNAM COUNTY'S BUDGET OF NEWS

OTTAWA, July 11.—One of the oldest buildings in the village was razed. It was located on the north side of Main Street, and was built by Jno. Cox in 1835, and used for some time as a store. It was a log structure with 30 feet frontage, had been covered with weather boarding. The logs were hewn and squared, the timber of oak and walnut. The lumber in good state of preservation, will be used for other purposes. The building now used as the Marble Works, is also of logs, and was erected by Michael Row, the first house in the village, and the only tavern, for some years.

SUBURBAN DAY IS DRAWING DESPITE BUSY HARVESTERS

There was a good sprinkling of suburban visitors in town on Wednesday to take advantage of the fine line of July clearance sales advertised by the local merchants; notwithstanding the flurry on the farm for help to get in the hay, and to prepare for threshing.

Information from down Celina way tells of threshing having actually commenced in that neighborhood. In the near vicinity of Lima is one of the largest fields of wheat ever produced in the county; some of it is beautifully golden and well headed out; but there is a section of the big field that has been down for some time, and that will undoubtedly be a loss to the owner, one of the big raisers, a man who is as much at home in the city in a political and official way, as in the field with his fellow farmer and cultivators.

The word from most of the bigger producing districts is that the farmers are having trouble to get help; notwithstanding the reported presence in the city of many returned soldiers out of a job.

FACTORY BURNED; LOSS IS $100,000

DULPHOS, July 11.—One of the largest and most destructive fires which has visited this city for a long time occurred Thursday, when the John C. Schaffer saw mill and hand saw factory was completely destroyed together with a large amount of valuable lumber.

The fire was first noticed at the above-mentioned hour and the alarm telephoned to the city building by Mr. Grundon, living near the factory. At the time when it was noticed the fire had already gained considerable headway and had evidently been burning for some time.

The loss will be about $10,000 with insurance of $4,500.

BULGARS ARE COMING.

The Best Cough Medicine.

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak well of a certain preparation, he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself and in his family. This is why so many druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. Jones, a well known druggist of Culburn, Ky., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past seven years, and I have found it to be the best cough medicine I have ever known."

FRANK ADAMS IS SENT TO PRISON

VAN WERT, July 11.—It wasn't Friday the 13th, but it should have been yesterday, for Frank Adams, as it was distinctly an unlucky day for him.

Frank had filed two charges of assault and battery against Mike and Carl Oberinger of Jackson township. On the trial of these cases before Squire Mauship both of them were declared not guilty and then Adams was placed on trial on a charge of assault filed by his wife, Mrs. Frank Adams. When the evidence was all in on this case Adams found himself fined $25 and costs and sentenced to six months in the workhouse.

Adams has caused the local officers considerable trouble only a short time ago having been fined $100 by Judge Blachly in common pleas court for contempt when he threatened to kill his wife after the judge had issued an injunction against his interfering with her in any way.

During the year ending June 30, 1919, 220 cases were handled in common pleas court of Van Wert county, according to the annual report on the affairs of the office just completed by the deputy clerk. Of this number 172 were filed during the year and 48 were pending at the beginning of the year.

Of the total number 121 were disposed of, five were taken to the court of appeals and 94 are still pending. During the year seven cases from Van Wert county were handled by the court of appeals, two of these having been pending at the beginning of the year. Six have been decided by the higher court and one is still pending before it. Twenty one coroner's inquests were held and four persons were naturalized.

John Barleycorn Being Laid Away With Due Honors by New York Saloon Keeper

John Barleycorn may be only in a trance and awoken for a short time before his end comes the first of next year, but a lot of New York saloon keepers consider him the "late lamented" John. This photograph shows one "retired" saloon proprietor burying him with all due honors. Attached to the mourning crape on the door is a bottle of private stock. Beneath is a demijohn filled with "hard stuff."

ASKS DIVORCE FROM ROVER.

Averring her husband, Walter Williams, is of a roving disposition, and that he gets angry every time she refuses to accompany him, Elvora Williams filed suit for divorce in common pleas court this afternoon. She further avers he compelled her to leave her home by his treatment, and he has more than once called her vile names.

She asks that her maiden name, Elvora Ellerbrook, be restored to her.

LONG WAY TO LONDON.

LONDON, July 11.—It is no longer against the law in England to buy a round of drinks, the liquor board having revoked the "no treating" order, a war measure. It points out that the order wiped out the practice of treating and it expressed the hope that "the good sense of the community should suffice to prevent its revival with the wasteful and excessive drinking to which it leads."

4,000 SAILORS GOING.

GREAT LAKES, Ill., July 11.—Preparations were begun today at the naval training station here to dispatch 4,000 sailors to sea within the next few days. It was said that the demobilization of reserves had thinned the ranks on the warships of the Atlantic and Pacific fleets and that the order was made "rush" to meet the urgent need for man-power.

The Lima Times' Fascinating Fiction Feature

TODAY—"Robinson Crusoe," by Daniel Defoe.
SATURDAY—"The Arabian Nights," by Sheherazade.

DEFOE

Daniel Defoe was born in London about 1660. After a life of varied and brilliant activity, he died, a homeless fugitive, in Ropemakers' Alley, Moorfields, on April 26, 1731. His father, a butcher, educated Daniel for the dissenting ministry, but the boy's unremitting energy led him to be a trader, a political intriguer, and an indefatigable journalist.

He rose to great intimacy with King William III., and abruptly fell to pillory and prison for his too perfect satire, "The Shortest Way with Dissenters." From Newgate he launched his remarkable Review, a journal written entirely by himself. He advocated an income tax and higher education for women. He wrote 250 distinct pamphlets and books, but his masterpiece, "Robinson Crusoe," was not published until 1719, when the author was nearly 60 years old. This, the first great English novel, has in some respects never been surpassed. Its immediate popularity incited Defoe to write a sequel and many thrilling tales of pirates and adventurers, of courtiers and adventuresses. His vivid story of the plague appeared three years after "Robinson Crusoe." "Defoe was perhaps the greatest liar that ever lived. Yet if we go deep into his rich and strangely mixed nature, we come upon stubborn foundations of conscience. Whatever the ultimate judgment of his honesty, "Robinson Crusoe" lives immortally to attest his genius in invention.

ROBINSON CRUSOE

By DANIEL DEFOE

Condensation by James B. Connolly

My father designed me for the law, but I would be satisfied only with going to sea, and being one day at Hull and one of my companions about to go by sea to London in his father's ship, nothing would serve me but I must go with him—this on September 8, 1651, and I being then nineteen years of age.

The ship was no sooner out of port than the wind began to blow and the sea to rise in the most frightful manner, which made me most terribly sick in body and frightened in mind. In my agony I vowed that if God would spare me through this one voyage I would go, immediately I set foot on land, directly home to my good parents and be ever after guided in my conduct by their advice.

But next day the wind was abated and the sea calmer, and the sun went down to a perfectly fine evening, and when to that was added a bowl of punch made my a shipmate, I forgot my resolution to return home after the voyage; and such has been my habit to my great misfortune, all my life to disavow in the hour of peril the headstrong actions which have brought me to peril, and when the danger is past to forget all vows and plunge headlong once more on my heedless course.

Various were my adventures after that first tempestuous voyage. Trading to Guinea in Africa I was captured by a Turkish rover and sold into slavery, from where after many perils I escaped to the Brazils where I set myself up for a sugar planter and was enjoying a fine prosperity there, when I fell a victim to temptation. Help being scarce in the Brazils and some planters there knowing that I had traded with the slave coast of Africa, they beguiled me into a voyage to those parts with the intent to secure slave labor for our plantations.

Only evil does ever come of evil counsel. Our ship was wrecked on an unknown island off the northeast coast of South America, and of all the ship's company I alone by the blessing of God, was allowed to escape through the high surf to the shore. All I possessed at the time was a knife, a pipe and a little tobacco in a box. Walking along the shore, I found fresh water, a great joy. Having drunk and put a little tobacco against the hunger in my mouth, I took up my lodging in a tree and did there sleep to my great refreshment throughout the night.

Next morning the weather was clear and the sea mild, but what pleased me most was the sight of the ship which, as the tide ebbed lay so close to the shore that I found no trouble in swimming out to it. No living thing except a dog and two cats were left on the ship; but there was a store of necessities, and such I took, building a raft for the purpose of transporting them to an inlet in the island where was fresh water and a flat high place for my habitation. Bread, rice, barley and corn, cheese and dried goat's flesh, some sugar, flour, planks, spars, rope—all these with muskets, two pistols, fowling pieces, a store of lead and powder, two saws, an axe, a hammer, and—which was the least use of all—thirty-six pounds sterling. All these I piloted from day to day between tides from ship to shore. On the night of the thirteenth day, my work of transportation being done I lay down in my usual fear of wild beasts, but also of thankfulness in the knowledge that I was prepared for some time to come against the barrenness of this island.

There were wild fruit trees on the island, but it was many days before I discovered them. There were also goats running wild, but without the firearms and ammunition I had brought from the ship of what avail were they to me? So I had reason to be thankful for the good Providence which held the ship to the shore until I had taken off all that was of use to me.

There was much to be done if I were to secure my existence on this strange island. The needful things I did as best I could in turn, but not always with good fortune attending my efforts. In my first planting of barley and corn seed, the half of all my precious stock was wasted by reason of being planted in the very wrong time. I spent weary months in making earth-ware pots for holding fresh water; and forty-two days it took me to hew my first long plank from a tree trunk. I strove for weeks to fashion a stone mortar to stamp grain in, only to come at last to a block of hollowed-out wood. Five months I labored in felling a great cedar tree, hewing and shaping it to the hull of a splendid boat with which I was to escape from the island, only to be forced to abandon it for want of a means whereby to launch it into the sea. However, every failure taught me something I had not known before.

For the elements, there were great winds and rains and earthquakes. But I became used in time to all things. I planted and harvested my crops of barley and corn; I plucked my wild grapes and dried them in to nourishing raisins; I raised and killed and smoked and salted my tame goats, being thus for variety of food not so badly served. And so through the twelve years during which I saw no sign of human existence on the island other than my own, until that eventful day on which I met with the print of a man's naked foot on the sand.

I was then like one thunder-struck. I listened, I looked, but I could hear nothing, see nothing. I went up the shore, down the shore; but there was only that single foot-print! Terrified to the last degree, I ran to my habitation like one pursued; and for three days and nights thereafter I did not stir out.

What a commentary on the fear of man for man! After twelve years of pain and labor, twelve years of warring against the elements, to be thrown into terror by the imprint of a human foot! But so it was.

After observation I learned that it was the habit of cannibals from the main-land to come to a part of the island which I seldom visited to feast upon the bodies of their captured enemies. One morning from my lookout I perceived thirty savages dancing around a fire. They had cooked one victim and had two more ready for the fire, when I descended upon them with two loaded muskets and my great sword, and was in time to save one which they had not yet eaten. The saved man I called Friday, in honor of the day of his rescue, and his was the first voice I heard in all my 25 years on the island. He was young, intelligent, of a superior race of savages and because

UNTIL JULY 10th

Following its custom established several years ago, the Allen County Savings & Loan Company will allow interest on Savings Deposits made to and including July 10th the same as though made on July first.

This is allowing an additional five days grace for this month to give depositors an opportunity to readjust their affairs and still have the benefit of interest for the full month of July.

The change is made in the rule regarding Certificates of deposit which bear interest from date of issue until paid if left six months or longer.

The assets of this Company, as expressed in figures, amount to more than two million dollars; but its greatest asset is its history of service and sound business principles.

My trusted companion for all the time I remained on the island.

What Friday told me of the mainland, after I had taught him some English, decided me to leave my island. We built a boat, this time not too far from the sea for launching, and were almost ready to set sail when 21 savages in three canoes landed on the island with three prisoners for a feast. I double-charged two fowling pieces, four muskets, two pistols, and giving Friday a hatchet and also a great dram of rum and myself my great sword, we descended and killed all but four of the savages.

One of the prisoners was Friday's father. The white man was a Spaniard, a survivor from a ship of which I had seen the wrecked hull on my island some years before this, and from which I had taken some 1200 pieces of gold, but of which I made small account because of its being of less value to me than so much sand of the beach.

The Spaniard and Friday's father I sent with fire-arms and food in my new boat to bring back the wrecked crew of the Spanish ship. While waiting for their return an English ship with a mutinous crew put into my island. I helped the captain recover his ship and took passage with him for England, leaving on the island the most mutinous members with two honest ones who wished also to remain. Later, my Spaniards returned and all settled together on the island, having their dimensions at first, but settling down finally into a flourishing colony, which some years later it was my happiness to visit.

After twenty-eight years, two months and nineteen days I left my island. I anticipated much joy of my arrival in England, but I was like a stranger there. My mother and father were both dead, which was unfortunate, as I could have been of great service to them; for besides the 1200 pieces of gold from the Spanish ship, there was 10,000 pounds sterling awaiting me from an honest friend, a Portuguese captain to whom I had entrusted my estate in the Brazils before setting forth on the ill-fated errand which threw me for twenty-eight years on my island. So pleased was I with his honesty that I settled 100 mouldures a year on him and fifty mouldures a year on his son, both for life.

I married and begot three children, and except for the one voyage to the old island, of which I have spoken, I roamed no more. So here I am, having lived a life of infinite variety for 29 years blessed with more than I deserve and resolved to prepare now for the longest journey of all. If I have learned anything it is a knowledge of the value of retirement and the blessing of ending our days in peace.

MEETING TONIGHT TO DECIDE VOTE ON MUNY LIGHT PLANT

Councilman Foster Blocks
Proceedings Thursday Night

GAMPERS TO BE HERE

Expert to Explain Certain
Parts of His Proposal
Not Clear

No decision concerning the municipal lighting system was reached by council last evening, and as a result, the session was continued until tonight, when it is anticipated some conclusion will be arrived at so the people will be given an opportunity to vote upon the question at the primary election to be held this coming August. If no conclusion is reached, so that publication of the legislation may be published in tomorrow's papers, it will not be possible to submit the matter to a vote next month.

It is very probable G. H. Gampers, of Columbus, lighting expert, who made the estimate for a local lighting system will be present at this evening's meeting, and elucidate his report to the fullest extent. There seems to be several clauses and estimates in the report which are not exactly clear to city fathers.

Foster Doubtful.
Another thing greatly responsible for the extra long session of the body is the fact that Councilman Foster, who has all along fought the Ohio Electric company, has for some unknown reason, suddenly arrived at the conclusion that citizens are not really in favor of a municipal lighting system, and he went a long way toward blocking the passing of the ordinance last evening.

Brother councilmen are at a loss to understand Foster's actions, they say. He has always attacked the corporation, and it was only recently that he branded its street cars as "junk," and proclaimed them unsafe to ride upon. According to those who have been in close communication with the councilman, Foster is expected to vote against municipal ownership tonight. How he will vote he refuses to state.

Don't Understand It.
It is Foster's contention that he has not had an opportunity to go over the report fully with members of the franchise committee. Councilmen and other city officials are at a loss to understand this, as Foster was given the report by Service Director Motheany just as soon as it arrived here from Gampers. Foster had the report for about ten days between the time it was given him until the past Monday night's session of council.

The remainder of the council members are eager to submit the project to a vote of the people at the coming primary election. Councilman Mowrey last night said: "The people want this plant, and we should give it to them."

Says All Want It.
Councilman Stiles stated he cannot see any reason why the matter should be delayed. It is his belief that the majority of citizens want this plant, and he feels justified in giving them an opportunity to vote upon same.

Attack Statements.
At last night's meeting were J. B. Dugan, resident manager of the Ohio Electric company, and Chief Engineer Kehoe. It is understood Kehoe and his assistants have prepared a statement attacking certain assertions made in the Gampers report, and this will be read at tonight's meeting.

Bulgar King's Securities Are Held Forfeit

LONDON, July 11.—Securities valued at $2,000,000 belonging to former King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, which have been in London since the beginning of the war, were declared forfeited to the crown today. They were made after proceedings before a commissioner and a jury.

Ferdinand of Bulgaria abdicated in favor of Crown Prince Boris. October 3, 118, and since has been living in Coburg, Germany. On May, 25 it was reported that he had requested the government of Czechoslovakia to grant him refuge but no action was taken on the request.

STEEL MERGER RUMORED.
YOUNGSTOWN, July 11.—Reports are current in financial circles here that plans are being developed for a merger of the Republic Iron and Steel company, Chicago, and the Midvale Steel and Ordnance corporation, Midvale, Pa.

MAJOR BINGHAM IS NEW ASSISTANT ADJ. GENERAL OF OHIO

The many friends of Major John Bingham former well known Lima resident will be interested to learn of his appointment as assistant adjutant general of Ohio, which was made Wednesday by Governor Cox at Columbus. The office has been vacant since last summer when J. E. Gimpert, Jr., of Dayton gave it up to become a quartermaster of the Dayton Soldier's home.

Major Bingham is a veteran of both the Spanish American and the European war and is one of the most widely known national guard officers in the state. He was assistant quartermaster general of Ohio during the first Cox administration. He went overseas as assistant quartermaster of the 37th division, and later was promoted quartermaster of the 82nd division. He entered upon his duties as assistant adjutant general Wednesday.

Major Bingham's mother and father reside at 210 North Collett St. Mrs. Bingham was formerly Miss Kate Lawlor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Lawlor, West McKibben street and a sister of Captain Emmett Lawlor, lately of France.

U. S. Can Now Resume Trade With Germany

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Trade between the United States and Germany will be resumed immediately, Acting Secretary Polk of the state department announced today. Mr. Polk said blanket license would be issued, but that dyes, chemicals and potash would be excepted. Control over trade in these commodities will be exercised by the reparations commission under the terms of the peace treaty. A formal announcement regarding resumption of trade relations was promised within 48 hours.

WATCH BANK ACCOUNT
COLUMBUS, O., July 11.—If you overdraw your checking account in any Ohio bank today or any time hereafter, the check itself is prima facie evidence of attempt to defraud and the crime you have committed is a felony leaving you liable to a term in the penitentiary. The new banking code carrying this stringent provision became effective today.

SOME GREAT MEN ARE IN CONGRESS ACCORDING TO OWN STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, July 11.—An epitome of mankind's virtues, occupations, aspirations and deeds is found in congress. Within the pages of the Congressional Directory—that of the Sixty-sixth Congress, which was issued today—senators and representatives officially record their own biographies.

Most of the lawmakers are lawyers, but among the membership are an iron moulder, banker, stick raiser, tree surgeon, physician, cheese manufacturer, glass blower, baggagemaster and a business man and a political accident.

Although autobiographies deal with the author's past, a surprising feature was that many members did not have more to say about their ancestors. Several, however, traced their lineage back to members of the continental congress, and one announced he is a "direct descendant of the father of Hannah Dustin," of Colonial and Indian fame. Another member said he is "best known as a platform orator."

Other members with an eye to thrift, did not fail to advertise. One said his firm originated a well-known cloth, another that he brought the first automobiles into this country from Europe, and another that he is president of a press clipping bureau. One recites his collegiate achievements and admits getting the congress after his "characteristic determination" carried him through an untiring campaign in a popular automobile. One member "was raised on a dairy farm," another lives on "a gravel road," and another "entered public schools at an early age."

CHARTER BACKERS ARE UNINFORMED UPON STATE RULING

It cannot be ascertained from any backers of the commission form of government, whether or not the ruling handed down yesterday by Attorney-General John G. Price, to the effect that the project may not be voted upon at the coming August primary, will have any material effect upon the proposition.

The majority of citizens who are in favor of the charter form of government, who were talked to today were unaware such an opinion had been made. Judge Kent Hughes, chairman of the citizens' committee, this afternoon stated he did not know the attorney-general had handed down the opinion, and he would be unable to make any statement until he has read Mr. Price's communication to Prosecuting Attorney John Cable.

The attorney-general has ruled that the proposition of charter form of government may not be voted upon at the coming primary election, and cites where he has made the same ruling to Hon. Lloyd S. Leach, of Coshocton, Ohio, a city which is also seeking to have the question voted upon at the coming August primary.

NARROW ESCAPE IN AUTO SMASHUP

Frank Ebersole's Car Collides With Big Cadillac—No One Hurt

Shortly after noon today, Frank J. Eversole, 115 North Baxter street, was painfully injured when his automobile was struck by a Cadillac machine driven by Frank Kommink, of the White Mountain Creamery company, on Market street near Baxter street.

According to witnesses, Eversole had just driven on Market street after emerging from a driveway west of Baxter street, on the north side of Market. As his machine neared the car tracks, Kommink, who was going west on Market street, struck the rear of Eversole's automobile.

So great was the impact, Eversole's car was carried to the south side of the street and wedged against a tree. The machine had been turned completely around. One wheel was broken at the hub, a fender was badly damaged and one side of the car smashed in.

Kommink, after giving his name and address to Eversole, drove away. His machine was not damaged to any great extent. Eversole suffered a wrenched back, and his right knee is said to be badly hurt.

TELEPHONE GIRLS GO UPON STRIKE

YOUNGSTOWN, July 11.—More than one hundred telephone operators employed by the Bell Telephone company went on strike at 11 o'clock this morning. The operators, members of a recently formed union, said that they are trying to enforce recognition of the union which they claim was refused at a conference last night with company representatives who are said to have offered to take up grievances individually. The strikers say that Bell telephone service here will be almost completely tied up.

Toll operators of the Ohio State company are expected to join them. Company officials say that men employed will take the place of the girls.

Gasoline Lower; Kerosene Is Up

CHICAGO, July 11.—The Standard Oil Company of Indiana today reduced the price of gasoline sold from tank wagons two cents a gallon in Chicago, St. Louis and Minneapolis territory and one cent a gallon in all other territory of the nine states it serves. The price of kerosene was advanced one cent a gallon in all of its territory.

NEW RURAL NURSE IS ON THE JOB

Eminent Men and Women of City and County Who Are Co-operating in the Interests of Allen County Children.

A great many pairs of sharp eyes are now trained toward the communities big and little urban and suburban, to see the results of the really remarkable campaigns conducted under the direction of the Allen County Child Welfare Association in the interests of the kiddies. It should be a matter of congratulation for these Lima mothers and fathers, school principals and teachers, that there exists such a powerful organization here. Comparatively few know that it is both efficient and powerful.

Too many are prone to accept the slowly but steadily improved conditions as a natural sequence of the occasional efforts of a few enthusiastic citizens kindly disposed toward the children. These few—the president, her associate officials, and the superintendents of the city and county school systems, — are it is true, leaving nothing undone to stimulate interest in the work; but their efforts would amount to naught in the long run without co-operation of the individual. Co-operation; that is the word.

It would surprise many doubtless, to learn that there are on the pay roll of the Association this summer nearly a dozen people, experts in their several lines, and in addition nearly a hundred others scattered throughout the county who are assigned a certain special duty to perform in the conduct of the welfare organization. And these duties are not light, by any means.

County superintendent Arganbright's district superintendents, for instance; No. 3 and E. E. Laidy, Elida and District No. 4, with him as chairman constitute as chairman and vice chairman respectively, with twenty prominent women the committee on Rural School Nurse, a new institution just established on the 1st of July.

Miss Nikel, a professional nurse a graduate of two Philadelphia Hospitals and especially trained in the work begun on her duties on that day. Then there is the city organization which has been doing such excellent work for several months all under the direction of the parent organization mentioned. In the rural districts, and the villages and towns outside Lima the organization is especially strong. Miss Nikel will have the constant assistance and co-operation of the following well known women in these districts:

Bluffton, Mrs. A. L. Baumgardner, Delphos, Mrs. H. M. Vell; Spencer, Mrs. Charles Pohlman; Gomer and Sugar Creek township, Mrs. Dr. Roebuck; Beavertown, Mrs. L. O. Durkee; Lafayette and Jackson township, Mrs. C. E. Palmer; Elida, Mrs. E. E. Laidy; Harrod, Mrs. M. L. Johnson; Westminster and Auglaize township, Mrs. T. J. Roberts; West Cairo, Mrs. E. A. Miller; Marion township, Mrs. C. F. Buettner; Amanda township, Mrs. Charles Post; American township, Mrs. Scott Neely and Mrs. Loug; Shawnee township, Mrs. W. B. Berryman; Monroe township, Mrs. Clay Harpster; Richland township, Miss Flora Gottschalk; Bath township, Mrs. Otis Lippincott; Perry township, Mrs. F. K. Sidenor.

Miss Ida E. Nikel, the new Rural nurse begun on her duties promptly on the 1st taking up the thread at Bluffton in the city schools, where Miss Anne Cunningham the state Rural Nurse and representative of the Tuberculosis Society commenced her examinations of the school children.

Miss Nikel will follow up the report made by Miss Cunningham of examinations made showing physical defects, taking the children of the village and town schools first, reserving those of the country districts until the commencement of school in the fall because of the great distances between homes. For the present she will assist Miss Anna Moore the organizations Field worker in the handling of some surgical cases in the city on Saturdays, devoting the other days of the week to the work in the towns and villages in which Miss Cunningham worked when here a few weeks ago.

GAL TWO CHILD WELFARE . . . It would not do to overlook the splendid Committee on Playgrounds and Recreational centres of the Welfare Association in this estimate. This work which has just begun in the city under the general supervision of G. H. Isenbarger, of the Whittier school in the five play centers, the two parks and Horace Mann, Garfield and Whittier schools, is already assuming formidable proportions.

The committee consists of Mrs. John W. Roby, chairman, Mrs. A. L. White, Mrs. A. L. Motheany, Mr. E. R. Foster, Mr. A. W. Wheatley, Mr. H. O. Bentley, Mr. John R. Carnes, Mrs. Lester Pratt, Mr. B. F. Thomas, all men and women of splendid qualifications for prosecuting the work of ameliorating the unpleasant conditions surrounding childhood, and all citizens of influence in society.

The president of the Association Dr. Josephine Pierce has been in Chicago all week, in attendance at the sessions of the Women's Bureau of Public Health of the American Osteopathic Association which has featured Child Welfare, and the Lima workers in the field may anticipate some valuable information from Dr. Pierce on her return; for she was Chairman of the Bureau which entertained such eminent authorities as Judge R. W. Baggot of the Juvenile Courts at Dayton, Miss Harriet Vittum the renowned Social Worker of University Settlement House, Chicago, Miss Florence King the only woman lawyer who has reached the proud position of a place on the Supreme bench, and others.

DELPHOS

CITY EMPLOYEES IN DELPHOS GET RAISE

DELPHOS, July 10.—One of the important matters considered at city council meeting was the granting of increased pay to the city drivers and members of the police force. The three drivers had been drawing $27.50 per month each and asked that they be advanced to $100 a month. Members of council stated that in their opinion, the demand was just and granted the increase. Members of the police force were present and asked for an increase. The chief and two regular patrolmen have been receiving $85.00 per month and asked that this be increased to $100. This increase was also granted. No demand had been made by the desk sergeant. Council voluntarily increased his salary, however, from $65 to $80 per month.

Word was received Wednesday morning announcing the death of Mrs. Frank Metzger, of Youngstown, O. Mrs. Metzger is the wife of Frank Metzger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Metzger, of South Erie street, and is well known to many Delphos people. Mauk, Mrs. W. C. DeWeese, Rev. P. G. Bergener, Arthur F. Lindemann and Clark Thompson. Mrs. Irene Mills Jackson was in Delphos to arrange for this committee.

Relatives of Mrs. Daisy McMullen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hira, of Cass street were greatly surprised Tuesday to receive announcements of her marriage to Mr. Clyde Jones, of Akron. The bride, who is a trained nurse, was in Blair, O. where she was taking care of Mr. Bert Jones, a brother of the groom, who is very ill, and while there her acquaintance with Mr. Clyde Jones was renewed and their wedding occurred on July 2 at the home of the groom's mother. It was a very quiet affair on account of the serious condition of the groom's brother.

CORNER MARKET AND ELIZABETH

July Sales Keep This Cool, New Store Busy

By What Measure Can a Store Determine Its Worth?

Pints and quarts, ounces and pounds, inches and feet as instruments or systems of measurement are worthless when it comes to determining the value of a store.

Some foolish storekeepers would blindly estimate their value by the daily bank account—regardless of what good they have done their customers.

The time-honored policy of this institution is to judge worth by the actual service we are giving! Not by how much money we extract for merchandise!

"Can we give better merchandise for less money?" is the thought carried daily in our minds.

We practice it so thoroughly that our patrons believe in our merchandise—they know by comparison that the dollar goes to the full limit of its true worth at Bluem's. Confidence in their confidence was what built this pleasant new home.

Again tomorrow and on and on we will inspect ourselves from the patrons' viewpoint and seek new ways of giving even greater values.

Must Have Been Right

IT IS A SAFE BET these days that when Republican Congressmen rave and rant President Wilson has hit the nail on the head. Yesterday the President went before the Senate and told them frankly and fully all about the peace conference and the much-talked-of League of Nations.

Immediately Republican Congressmen commenced to howl. Their efforts at vocal rehearsals are merely amusing. Put it in your pipe and smoke it that the League of Nations is going through. Public sentiment is for it. Fathers and mothers of boys who may be slaughtered in future wars if the League does not prevail are going to make it mighty warm for Boral and others in his ilk.

President Wilson delivered another epoch-making address. For ability to see things straight and then tell about them, with the clearest language, we have never seen the President's equal.

Mr. Taft's Question

SPEAKING at the great Methodist Centenary at Columbus last week, ex-President Taft asked the large assemblage, which heard his address, if they thought that God had given us Americans all the blessings we enjoy, all our strength, all our wealth and all our abundant opportunity to appropriate to our own use and to selfishly enjoy it alone, or whether they thought it was our privilege and duty to use our wonderful advantages to help other nations and other people, not so blessed as America, says an exchange.

There is but one answer to that forcefully presented thought-compelling question propounded by one of our greatest statesmen.

It is America's duty and privilege to carry her God-given blessings to all people wherever possible. The Creator has provided us with the ability and the means of helping the world. We would not be true to the greatest trust ever given into the keeping of men if we failed to respond to the great call of the world and do all possible to relieve the sufferings of the unfortunate, carry light into the dark places of the earth, assist the imprisoned peoples to freedom and the opportunity to become mentally, morally and physically clean, wholesome human beings.

Some of our statesmen pretending to hold a narrow selfish view of our national destiny and obligations, would do well to consider Mr. Taft's question and answer it honestly, conscientiously and govern their conduct accordingly.

Any statesmen who conscientiously considers and answers that question will not go far astray, seeking popularity, on any of the great questions confronting the nation at the present time.

This nation is not going to fail in the attainment of its destiny and no public official can check the currents of events which have been running since man was created with the ability to discriminate between right and wrong.

Destiny can't be turned aside by the selfish ambition of a few men.

An honest answer to Mr. Taft's question will point the way through many present difficulties which confront the ambitious individuals seeking political preferment or partisan advantage.

Fooling the Public

THE REPUBLICAN GAME of fooling the people is on again. The leaders in Washington are now making much noise because of alleged savings in appropriations. As ever it is purely camouflage. No actual saving has been made; no taxes will be reduced that would not have been reduced otherwise and in the final analysis the Administration—the War and Navy Departments—should have the credit of the savings effected.

The Army appropriation just passed was less by half a billion dollars than was presented to Congress last spring but killed when the Senate Republicans filibustered at the close of the session. At that time the figures were based on the estimated transportation of soldiers from Europe and the rate of demobilization on this side.

So far beyond all expectations in the matter of bringing the boys home and getting them out of the Army did the War and Navy Department succeed that the money necessary for the Army was reduced by half a billion dollars. Congress made its estimate on the later knowledge of the Administration's success. Now the Republicans claim they made a saving to the people. Will any intelligent man agree with them? And it may be added that this sort of "saving" is the kind we are to hear of frequently. However, it will avail the party little for the public is watching affairs at Washington too closely to be fooled.

Previous Extravagance

WE HEAR a great deal these days about Democratic extravagance in the conduct of a war that was the most monumental affair in the history of the world. American accomplishment and speed in getting ready, was easily the decisive factor in the winning of that War. Germany through a most comprehensive spy system, did not believe we could accomplish in ten years what we really did in one and a half. When we recall the extravagance, the stealing, the looting of the public treasury and the thousands of scandals of the Civil War and of the Spanish-American War, both under Republican direction, we must necessarily be proud of the Democratic Administration that effected the far greater task with a speed unbelievable eliminating any organized graft and with nothing but isolated cases of extravagance charged against it. The country will learn the facts and when it does, great credit will redound to those in authority.

HAPPY THOUGHT: Delightful nights to sleep.

We are in favor of passing the word along to the Huns who are falling over themselves to take the Kaiser's place on the prisoner's seat, that we strive to please, and will hang all applicants as long as the rope lasts.

GOOD EVENING—Those who can't find a buzz saw to money with might try an electric fan.

The Times' Family Doctor

HERE ARE SCIENCE'S LATEST DISCOVERIES ABOUT GOITRES

By DR. LEONARD KEENE HIRSHBERG

A. B., M. A., M. D. (John Hopkins University)

Sir William Osler's emphatic repetition of Virchow's discovery 20 years ago that nearly "ninety-nine individuals in every hundred have tuberculosis" is less startling than Prof. Kocher's statement that every woman has a potential goitre and four in every five men have them. That is to say, practically everyone is on the verge of having a goitre and does have one in abeyance.

If you will, even as a non-medical man, keenly look at the throats of young girls you know, a distinct kind of "fatness" will be discernible in the front of the neck. The thyroid gland, which is supposed to be small and snugly tucked in at this point, has become a bit bumptious.

A substance which looks like transparent glass or crystal gelatine, called colloid, is present in the thyroid gland. Excess of this material at certain ages will give anyone a goitre. The goitre-like thyroid gland is always bigger in fair maids between the ages of 14 to 19, as well as up to the age of 25, than in men. Whether these "physiological" small goitres become permanent or not, depends according to these new discoveries, upon the future life and accidents of the women as well as upon infectious disease and inheritance.

It has been found that one sort of goitre is due to an over-activity of the thyroid gland, due to "allowing nature to take its course." Later, when a goitre begins to become prominent, disorders in the internal organs and tissues are never thought of in connection with it. Yet, they cause many goitres.

Water Not a Cause
 It used to be thought by physicians that when a great number of goitres occurred in one neighborhood, the water must be at fault. It has been recently proved, however, that the water has nothing to do with it. Some times goitres are due to deficient iodine in the "colloid" substance.

A strictly non-flesh diet is indicated for the individual who suffers in this manner from the incompetency of his thyroid gland, whether it be a mild or severe goitre. Foods especially rich in iodine should be given the preference, also foods rich in calcium salts, for it has been noted by chemical means that calcium is lost rather freely in the course of thyroid difficulties.

Some Remedial Aids
 Foods rich in iodine are: Asparagus, artichokes, pineapples, carrots, cashews, oatmeal, whole-wheat bread, strawberries, kidney beans (red or white), green peas, potatoes, (baked), pears, grapes, unpolished rice, lettuce tomatoes egg-plant, cucumbers, pumpkins, melons, radishes, turnips, spinach, parsley and artichokes.

Foods abounding in calcium salts are: Lemons, oranges, strawberries, pine nuts, red or white cabbage, cauliflower, onions, radishes, leeks, carrots, turnips, endive, celery, asparagus, spinach, kohlrabi, lettuce, romaine, eggs, sweet milk, butter-milk, cream, butter, ordinary cheese, Parmesan cheese and Swiss cheese.

Goitres are very apt to appear in mothers who refuse to nurse their babies.

Persons who live upon meats, who neglect to eat green vegetables or who in the winter months are prone to live upon oils and fats to the exclusion of herbs and fresh vegetables, need not be surprised to find goitres enlarging around their necks. The remedy for such goitres is to eat fresh, green garden products.

Indeed, dietetic and physical measures often will cure as many goitres as the knife itself. The victim of goitre should have plenty of rest and sleep. Gentle massage of the throat with olive oil, using the fingers for manipulation and regular application of soothing compresses to the parts made by wringing out small, doubly folded cloths in cold water, help to effect a cure. Dry skin rubs with a coarse Turkish towel or friction brush every morning in a room filled with fresh air, cold baths each day for those who can tolerate them (for those who cannot, lukewarm baths at the start, gradually making the water colder and colder), all outdoor exercises possible, not forgetting vigorous aspiration of the lungs through deep breathing, and a diet of laxative foods also will aid materially.

Answers to Health Questions.

S. P. L. Q.—Kindly tell me of a good tooth paste or powder.

A.—Any antiseptic tooth paste or powder is good for the teeth.

H. H. C. Q.—Kindly advise me what to do for a coated tongue.

A.—Avoid sweets, starches, tobacco and seasonings. Fast a day a week, and take a seidlitz powder every morning for a time.

A. G. Q.—Kindly advise me what to do for superfluous hair.

A.—Remember that there are few if any methods to kill the roots. Most expedients are, like cleaning the teeth or washing the face, to be frequently repeated. About twice a week or when needed try a little of the following:

Calcium sulphide.....2 parts
 Zinc oxide.....1 part
 Starch.....1 part

When you are ready to use this make a paste with water and apply to the parts. Let it remain on the skin for about five minutes and then wipe off gently with a soft cloth.

HE LACKED NERVE FORCE TO DIGEST HIS DAILY MEALS

But Nerv-Worth Soon Overcame John H. Cheeks' Trouble—Wife Also Better.

Note what this grateful man says: "For several years I have lacked the nerve force to digest my food. Many things I could not eat and most that I did soured in my stomach and I would bloat badly and my heart action frightened me. Could not sleep and get rest and was going down grade fast. No strength or vigor. I tried many so-called remedies but got no relief. I purchased a bottle of Nerv-Worth and took it as directed and it gave me relief right from the start and now, after using two bottles, all the ailments named have left me. I can eat anything I want and digest it. No more nervousness or sleeplessness. No heart trouble and am feeling fine and vigorous. My wife was also very nervous. Pains in her back and side. Very severe headaches. Stomach and digestion in bad condition. Tossed about the bed all night and no sleep. She had used two bottles of Nerv-Worth and is now as well as she ever was. Eats well and sleeps all night through. No aches or pains in side and back and the severe headaches no longer occur. She had the asthma very bad but that has disappeared. We both recommend Nerv-Worth and are thankful we were fortunate enough to get it.

stipation and others. Change your mattress, your bed and the room you sleep in. Go to bed early and take a hot bath before retiring. Keep your bowels open twice a day and use a vibrator or small electric battery on your back. Change your posture, and, if possible, your occupation, but have the internal cause sought for by an examination and removed.

I. W. W. Q.—Kindly advise me what to do for dizziness.

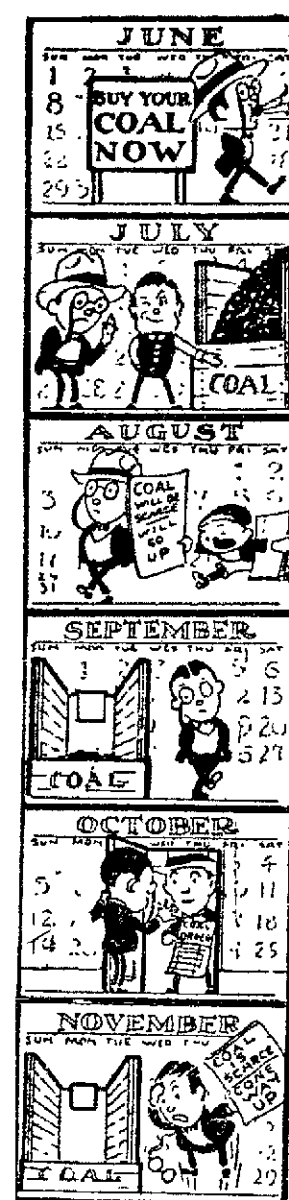

A.—Dizziness is caused by middle pressure, internal trouble and goitre or enlarged thyroid. You must have an examination made before proper treatment can be given.

R. W. Q.—Kindly advise me what to do for a thick, black shaving beard.

A.—Shave closely with a safety razor and apply a peroxide toilet water to bleach the black specks in the skin.

The COLD COLD WORLD

Yes—it's easy enough to whistle,
 When the world is warm and bright,
 And the sun is on the thistle,
 And the heart is free and light.

It's easy, too, to spurn the friend who points to his coal with pride,
 And tells you—"Better fill your bin
 While the coal man's on your side."

In August comes the rumor
 "Coal will be scarce and high."
 But still he remarks in good humor:
 "Why be in a hurry to buy?"

A cool morning then reminds him,
 That Winter is coming soon,
 Yet he locks the bin behind him.
 Saying, "I'll buy tomorrow noon."

But "Tomorrow" he said "I am busy,
 When the coal man suggested "NOW"
 And when he rode home in his Lizzie,
 His wife made a terrible row.

The wind blew up cold in November,
 Both he and his wife took the flue,
 And my—well—if you think they

FAUROT—DOROTHY DALTON
Dorothy Dalton, one of the best known of dramatic screen stars, appears in a decidedly new character in "Hard Boiled," the new Thomas H. Ince-Paramount photoplay now at the Faurot. In this story, written by John Lynch, she had a part that demingles comedy and pathos. She is the light, frivolous musical comedy star stranded in a country town and who is compelled to get some kind of work or starve. The handling of this characterization was entrusted to the capable directorship of Victor L. Schertzinger, who recently has been directing the plays of Charles Ray. Prizma pictures in nature's own color and Mr. and Mrs. Carter DeHaven in a clever and amusing comedy, "In a Pinch," are added features of the program, which will be shown for the final times tonight.

RIALTO THEATRE.

Mae Murray will be seen at the Rialto today in her latest success, "What Am I Bid?" "What Am I Bid," Mae Murray's newest Universal special attraction, was known around Universal City as "the honeymoon film" while it was being made and entitled.

Why? you ask. Because it was during the taking of this drama at Lake Tahoe that Miss Murray was married to Robert Z. Leonard, her director.

After working hours, when the light would not admit of "shooting scenes," the star and her tutor wandered in the twilight of Northern California celebrating their marriage to one another.

It was known in studio circles around Los Angeles that Miss Murray and Leonard were in love, but the news of their wedding came as a distinct surprise to their filmland associates.

"What Am I Bid?" shows Miss Murray at her best as a little mountain girl, known as "that brat o' Yarnell's," because of her drunken father, who brought her up in his own illiterate, shiftless, cursing footsteps.

It was written specially for Miss Murray by Harry Thew and John B. Clymer, and shows her talents to distinct advantage. The scenic effects made around the Lake Tahoe region of Northern California are wonderful.

amous pictures which were suppressed during the war, but which now have government sanction to be shown. This picture is titled "The Despoilers" or "Wars Women." The leading roles are played by Frank Keenan and Enid Markey and is one of Thos. H. Ince's productions. This reveals in a clear and vivid manner the heroic part which were taken by women in the course of the war as the many trials and tribulations which these women were compelled to undergo. While we are to a certain sense tired of seeing war views at this stage of the situation, the scenes are intermingled with the principal theme of the story to not become irksome or tiresome. The elaborateness and detail are such as only that master producer, Thos. H. Ince, can bring out, and all can rest assured of a wonderful presentation. In addition to this feature production can be seen another of the famous Keystone comedies.

Constance Talmadge is like some rare painting; the more you see of her, the greater your admiration. Miss Talmadge opened a three-day run at the Lyric theatre, yesterday, in a new Select comedy plus drama "The Veiled Adventure," in which she is presented by Lewis J. Selznick.

After viewing her efforts in a half dozen or so preceding plays, the current one seems to go just a trifle farther in establishing the versatility of this charming Select star. In "The Veiled Adventure," a highly entertaining and novel story has been built around a grey chiffon veil which Geraldine Barker found in the veroboot pocket of her fiancé who was recognized among the smart set as the "catch of the season." Geraldine had consented to become his wife more in order to gain a triumph over the other society beauties than for any other reason. In fact as the plot develops, she discovers that the veil belongs to Mlle. Hortense, a beauty expert with whom he is going about, and she becomes doubtful as to whether she really loves the man she is to marry. She becomes a "beauty expert" herself, and the plot develops and changes her view of life and man.

"The Veiled Adventure" has a little moving plot with smiles and laughs throughout. Constance Talmadge, it would seem, never fails to please her audience, a circumstance which may be due to the fact that there is something charmingly "different" about her personality and characterizations.

The production was directed by Walter Edwards and to Julia Crawford Ivers are credited both the original story and the scenario which are excellent. Harrison Ford plays opposite Miss Talmadge and gives an excellent characterization of the man from Texas, who didn't have much faith in women.

Centenary Celebration Columbus

(OHIO)

Positively Closes
Sun. Jul. 13th.

Described by William C. Freeman, Associated with Paul Block, Inc., New York, Chicago, Detroit, Boston.

One of several policemen on duty at the State Fair Grounds where the Centenary Celebration has been in action since Friday, June 20th—day and night—remarked that he did not know why he and other officers had been assigned to this work because he said there was really nothing for him and the other officers to do—except, perhaps, to assist those who might be overcome by the heat.

Quite a tribute to the behavior of a great crowd of people—averaging over 40,000 a day since the Centenary Celebration opened—is it not?

The City of Columbus, with its 250,000 population, could not sustain an average attendance in excess of 40,000 daily—therefore, many thousands of visitors had to come and did come from all sections of the country.

As an illustration: on the train from Chicago to Columbus, I met a man and his wife and three children, who lived in North Dakota. They were on the way to attend the Centenary Celebration. As a matter of fact I met people from practically every state in the Union.

The great crowd—over 120,000—that attended the Centenary Celebration on July 4th expressed itself as mightily pleased that the attendance exceeded that at the Prize Fight, Toledo, by more than 70,000.

The most remarkable scene I have ever witnessed was that on July 4th and 5th when thousands upon thousands of people patiently stood in line under a broiling sun waiting for an opportunity to purchase an admission ticket to see the GREAT PAGEANT, written by Rev. Dr. J. E. Crowther, and wonderfully staged.

Another remarkable thing about this Pageant is that the story it tells is founded on life as portrayed in the Bible—and yet thousands of people wanted to see it and did see it, filling the great Coliseum, with its 7,500 seating capacity, every time it was presented.

Another outstanding feature of the Centenary Celebration is that it assembled so many striking attractions that D. W. Griffith—one of the Masters in Motion Picture life—kept a force of experts at the State Fair Ground for more than two weeks taking motion pictures that introduced patrons of movie picture houses all over the world to the really wonderful events that were a daily part of the exposition.

The Victory Parade on the evening of July 4th, in which over 8,000 people took part was a realization of a dream of ten years ago when the managers of this Centenary Celebration conceived the idea that it would be an inspiring event to show the people of America what had been accomplished by Methodist missionaries in foreign lands.

It is a striking statement that there were as many people in this parade—remember the number, 8,000—as Methodist missionaries had converted during the first fifty years of their efforts in heathen lands.

And now it is equally striking to say that the converts are made at the rate of 10,000 a month through this one great agency alone. And to think of 50,000 people witnessing this parade. Think also of 7,500 people piling into the Coliseum to see the big pageant at the same time. Think also of the big tent being filled to capacity at the same time where people went to hear "Bob Jones," the great Southern Evangelist. Think also of the moving picture houses filled up with interested and eager crowds at the same time.

But the one great outstanding feature that towers far and above all others is this: The Centenary Celebration has brought together in a splendid bond of unity the North and South Divisions of the Methodist Church which have been separated in their activities for many years. And this fact coupled with the approval given in rich measure to the Centenary Celebration and its big motive power in world reconstruction by the representatives of other RELIGIOUS FAITHS, is most significant.

A celebration that started on Friday and ends on the 13th—just started to advertise on Friday and ends its 13th advertisement on Friday, July 13th—certainly defied superstition and came out with flying colors and a glorious success.

Promoter McKinney Wants Champion to Fight in Canton Labor Day For $25,000

While Jack Dempsey, the new world's champion, is receiving many offers from fight promoters all over the country for bouts, the latest is one of a guarantee of $25,000, with an option of 45 per cent of the gross receipts to meet Battling Levinsky, the clever Hebrew light heavyweight champion, in a twelve-round no decision bout to be fought at an open air boxing show to be staged by the McKinney A. C. of Canton, O., on the afternoon of Labor Day. Promoter McKinney says he will post the entire guarantee with a bank in Canton the moment that Dempsey signs the articles of agreement. Dempsey knocked Levinsky out in three rounds at Philadelphia last winter.

RACES CONTINUE FOR TOMORROWTerrific Rainstorm Stops Grand Circuit Meeting

CLEVELAND, July 11.—With the North Randall meeting continuing through tomorrow, because of the curtailment of yesterday's card, to three races due to rain, a complete revision of the Grand Circuit program has been made. By splitting the 2:10 trot into two divisions, two days of racing have been arranged that appear extremely attractive.

The 20:5 trot, in which five are carded to start, is the feature of today's card, which consists of a three-year-old half-mile dash for three-year-old trotters, two divisions of the 2:17 pace and the first division of the 2:10 trot.

The second division of the 2:10 trot will be run Saturday, as will also the free-for-all pace and two other trotting events.

JIM FLYNN NOW IN THE MOVIESWill Star In Sennet Comedies—He is Funny

Jim Flynn, the heavyweight boxer who fought nearly every big pugilistic star now before the public, has become an actor. His former trainer, "Abdul the Turk," is now athletic trainer for Mack Sennett, the comedy king. Abdul persuaded his old pal and idol to take up the pictures as a new job. The studio, with respect to Flynn's manhandling record, is nervously waiting for the time when he appears for the first time in a mob scene. Thus far his one part has been that of a Bolshevik sent with bushy whiskers—to his intense disgust.

DEMPSEY, A MAN OF STERLING CHARACTER

Before dropping the heavyweight championship thing altogether there is one angle that impressed itself upon men who came in contact with Dempsey and Kearns during their six weeks stay in Toledo, that might be better off the chest than on it, says an eastern sport writer.

The finest gentleman in the Dempsey-Kearns combination is Jack Dempsey. Considering the way the boy "boed" around the country and then lived the life of a fighting man, his inherent good qualities—those qualities that mark the line between the gentleman and the rough, are truly remarkable.

After meeting Dempsey every day for six weeks, spending hours with him, hearing him talk on a variety of subjects and watching him closely around his training camp where he met all manner of people, I can only wonder at the youngster.

Jack Dempsey's mother must be a remarkable woman, for despite his life and his associates he still carries uppermost, sentiments and conduct that speak of early training.

If allowed to follow his own wishes Dempsey will not naturally incline to a loose life. He does not impress one as a "chicken fancier." He was pursued by women throughout his time in Toledo and now that he is champion he will be more attractive than ever to some women.

The future of the champion is almost entirely in the hands of Jack Kearns, for Dempsey apparently has implicit faith in him. So far as the business end of management is concerned this is a good thing, because Kearns has shown himself to be a clever pilot. Men said he was not big enough to steer Dempsey through the championship without losing his head, but he did, and emerged with flying colors.

But Kearns has much to live down, much to forget, if he is to rise to a great height as manager of a champion. He must overcome the traits and habits of a life time, break away from the gang with which he trailed on the Pacific coast and which followed him to Toledo, put all of his past behind him and strike out along a new road, if he is to make men take off their hats to him.

Kearns is young, his success has probably gone to his head, which shows he is human and he can make many mistakes, but the greatest mistake he can possibly make is to permit Jack Dempsey to be trailed by the leaches who showed here last week and for a couple of weeks before.

Kearns, in his desire to get money, allowed rambles to open a craps game at the Overland club the last week of training. He permitted Dempsey's name to be used over a gambling room, thereby associating the boy with the outfit.

Such things go against the grain of a man who is white all the way through. If continued they will connect the name of Jack Dempsey with the gambling ring and nothing could be worse.

Kearns has the opportunity of a life time for himself a reputation comparable to that of Billy Brady, who handled Jim Corbett and Jim Jeffries. He can rise above the strata in which he seems bound to confine his activity to one that will bring credit to himself and to the man he managed into the world's championship—if he is big enough to do it.

Keep your eye on Kearns and Dempsey for one year. If Kearns strings with the old crowd Dempsey will lose 50 per cent of the old quality that makes him so popular now. If Kearns cuts loose from the old crowd, attends strictly to business and insists that Dempsey do the same, then indeed will Jack Dempsey be an invincible champion, and the world can take off its hat to Jack Kearns.

There are two roads before Kearns and he can send Dempsey along whichever one he chooses. What road will it be?

last winter, is doomed to return to the bushes in the near future, according to rumors in the Red Sox camp.

This year's Western open golf championship tournament is expected to surpass any previously held. The tournament will be conducted at the Mayfield Country Club, Cleveland, July 23 and 25, and will consist of seventy-two holes. The title was last won by Long Jim Barnes, professional at the Sunset Hills Club, St. Louis, who led the field in the 1917 tournament at the Westmoreland Club, Chicago, with a score of 283. No tournament was held last year.

ONLY THREE RACES DECIDED YESTERDAY

Owing to Curtailment of Yesterday's Card at Cleveland

CLEVELAND, July 11.—Only three of the scheduled six Grand Circuit races were decided at North Randall yesterday because of a heavy rainstorm, which delayed the start of the first event nearly four hours. As a result it was announced that the meet would continue into Saturday. Despite the unfavorable weather another record crowd was on hand.

Reverse Dead Heat Ruling. Mariondale, third choice in the betting, won the Tavern "Steak" of $3,000 for 2:14 trotters, the feature of the program. After deciding the third mile of this event, a dead heat between Mariondale and Lockspur, the judges reversed their ruling and gave the classic to Mariondale because he stood first in the summary. The auction pool with $3,200 was the largest ever made on the local track.

Bets Off on 2:18 Trot. The judges called off all pool betting on the 2:18 trot. It was announced this action was taken because of the alleged listless driving of Dodge behind Hollywood Naomi in the first two heats.

Mignola was the only favorite to win.

DIDN'T LOOK GOOD.

"Selecting a jury has become one of the most important features of the modern trial," remarked a well-known judge recently, "and you'd be surprised how difficult it is to get 12 really intelligent and unbiased men together at one time. I recall once when a whole week was spent in selecting a jury to try a killing. Finally one old fellow seemed to fill the bill and would complete the quota. He had no prejudices, was not opposed to capital punishment, and was considered a valuable find. So the prosecuting attorney said solemnly, 'Juror, look upon the prisoner—prisoner, look upon the juror. The old man adjusted his spectacles and peered at the prisoner for a full half-minute. Then, turning to the court, he said: 'Judge, turned if I don't believe he's guilty.'"—San Francisco "Argonaut."

HURLS PERFECT GAME

Ed Kelley, former Dean Academy pitcher, today achieves the distinction all pitchers try to attain. Kelley is credited with a no-run, no-hit, no-man-reach-first game. In hurling for the Staff team in the War Interbureau league Kelley went in against General Staff yesterday and won a 5 to 0 game.

Not a single hit was registered off Kelley. No man reached first. No runs were scored off him. He gave no bases on balls, hit no batsmen. Kelley fanned seventeen batters. He won his game with Lausche pitching against him, which gives him all the more credit.

HOW THE BELGIAN HORSES DEPARTED

Particulars of the methods of the Germans in regard to blooded horses stolen from the Belgians during the war were given by the Earl of Jeddery in the course of a speech at the latest meeting of the Jockey club in England, according to The London Post.

According to a statement made by the Belgian Jockey Club, it appears that many thoroughbreds, both race horses and animals from breeding studs, had been sent into Germany. They are, however, useless for racing or breeding purposes without the necessary papers to prove their identity, and these the Belgian Jockey club from the first have declined to yield.

Inquiry has been made at the offices of the Belgian Jockey club without result, and the starter of the club, an Englishman over 50 years of age, was deported to Germany in order to force the hands of the Belgian authorities. The Belgian Jockey club asked that he should be allowed to return.

The Union club of Berlin—the jockey club of Germany—replied that a certain prince would have that done provided he received a certificate for a valuable mare stolen from a Belgian stud, which the prince had taken possession of for his own private use. That request was naturally refused, and then came a letter stating that, because of the refusal, nothing could be done for the starter, and that the Belgian stewards were the only people to blame.

In these circumstances the Jockey club passed a resolution that no entries for races shall be accepted from German subjects or their allies, and the "Stud Book" will be closed to horses stolen from Belgian owners.
